

Mrs. H. D. Perkins received a sad message Sunday evening, apprising her of the death of her sister, Miss Theresa Naekel, in an automobile accident near Mandan. She was in a car driven by Arthur Marshall of Selfridge to whom she was engaged to be married, and when a mile east of Mandan their car collided with another, slewing to one side where it struck a bus. Miss Naekel was instantly killed in the smash. The body was taken to the home of her parents at Valley City, where the funeral was held. Mrs. Perkins went to Valley City Monday, the remainder of the family going Wednesday.
