

Ole K. Nordeng and Christian Foss, both of Hannaford, were killed in an automobile accident near the Richard Larson farm last Friday. They had started to the Bartley school house to do some mason work and their car turned over into a slough, pinning them face down in the mud. Nordeng was one of the proprietors of the hotel and meat market.