

Last Friday the church was filled to capacity by old friends and neighbors from many places to pay their last respects at the funeral of Mrs. Hans Simensen. There was a profusion of flowers covering the beautiful casket. Burial was at Mabel cemetery.