

Prominent Binford

Lady Dead

Mrs. J. R. Truscott passed away after a short illness, at Rochester Minnesota Wednesday. She had gone to Canada several days earlier to visit relatives and became sick while there. Her husband, Dr. Truscott, had her removed to the hospital but it was impossible to do anything to save her life.

Mrs. Truscott was prominent in the work of the Rebekah lodges in this part of the state.
