

Wagoner's Lose

Little Boy

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wagoner are mourning the loss of their beloved son, Leigh Roy, who passed away February 24, following an attack of pneumonia.

He was first taken sick with croup but no alarm was felt until Saturday night when there was a turn for the worse. All that medical skill and loving hands could do proved of no avail.

Leigh Roy Wagoner was born September 16, 1928, and at death was 17 months and 8 days old. He is survived by the grief stricken parents and children.

Funeral services were held at the Methodist church February 26, conducted by Rev. Cooley, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Cooperstown. The songs, "Sweet Peace" and "God Will Take Care of You" were rendered by Misses Evelyn Alfson and Erna Youngbeck, with Miss Verna Anderson at the piano.

Burial was at Hartman Memorial cemetery.

The pall bearers were Johnny and Gerald Youngbeck, Robert Dietrich and Clifford Fallen.
