

A. T. Zollner returned home Tuesday from Muscatine Iowa where he was called by the death of his mother November 21, at the age of 78. She had been an invalid for seven years during which time she suffered much.