

A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the Sam Simenson home Sunday to help Mr. and Mrs. Simenson celebrate their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary, which was on the preceding Friday. Rev. Ordahl of Sutton made a short talk after which he presented the bridal pair with a set of silverware. Following the presentation of the gifts a bounteous dinner was served. The afternoon was spent socially. Those present outside the community were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Solberg and family of Coopers-town; Mr. and Mrs. Otto Simenson and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brastrup and family, of Courtenay. The entire community joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simenson many more years of a happy wedded life.—Hannaford Enterprise.
