
Smith-Michaelson

It was rumored several times the past few weeks that C. W. Smith was married, but in each instance the rumors were without foundation until Saturday February 20 at 4 o'clock when he and Mrs Michaelson of Wimbledon were united in marriage by Rev. G. R. Estrem of Cooperstown. They were accompanied by C. H. Wild and wife of Wimbledon who were witnesses to the ceremony.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are well respected in the communities which have been their homes, and their friends are expressing their wishes for a happy career,

They expect to make their home at Glenfield after March 20.
