

Announcements were, received here the latter part of the week, announcing the marriage of Alfred Tweed a prosperous young farmer south of town, and Miss Jessie Gundersen of Coopers-town. They will be at home after July 15. Although the bride is a stranger in this vicinity we are glad to welcome her to our midst, and extend hearty congratulations.