

Last Friday, as Iver Alm was stepping onto the walk in front of the hotel at Coopers-town his foot slipped and he fell, with his weight on his right arm, resulting in fractured bones at the wrist. Surgical attention was given immediately. He will travel by train in doing his canvassing until the bones heal.