

Mrs. C. L. Anderson was able to hold her sale Saturday, after postponing it twice on account of rain. Everything sold well, many articles bringing as much as the original prices paid for them. The car was purchased by Ed Rhodes. Monday, she and the children departed for Ellsworth Wisconsin. From there they will go to Osage Iowa to make their future home.

---