

A. R. Boisjolie and family droye to Hastings last Wednesday to visit S. E. Olson and family, returning, home Thursday against the terrific wind that was blowing. They consumed four gallons of gas going and eleven on the return trip which gives some idea of the velocity of the wind they had to travel against. When they reached home Mr. Boisjolie found the wheel on his windmill had been blown off.