

Just to show the folks it could be done on Christmas day in North Dakota without any discomfort, whatever, Adolph Boi-jolie took a picture of his home folks all dressed up in summer attire, straw hats etc. December this year has been all one could wish for and decidedly a contrast to last year.

---