

R. A. Bollum, former depot agent at Grace City, was given a sentence of 1 year at hard labor in the county jail, at a hearing conducted at Carrington, October 10th. Bollum was sentenced on the charge of embezzlement of funds of the Great Northern railway while in the service at Grace City. He disappeared in December, 1927, and was not located until July last summer when he was caught at Guthrie, N. D. visiting his three children. He worked more than two years at a factory at Seattle, Wash. Hanna-

ford Enterprise