

Banister Banter

Winsome Wit and Wisdom

According to Professor Lester Hawkes L. L. D. a formal note is used to invite people with whom you are not well acquainted or with whom you are not on the best of terms. Professor Hawkes is a noted English instructor and has written several articles intended to promote the use of good English. A few of these are:

1. The Stars Through a Microscope.
2. Knack of Nagging
3. Marketing the 'Gem of the Ocean'
4. The Three R's in B Flat

Any of the above pamphlets may be obtained from Professor Hawkes upon receipt of 10c in stamps.

You can fool some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time.

Abraham Lincoln

Freshie "I believe this school is haunted!"

Soph. "Why?"

Freshie "They're always talking about school spirit."

Bigotry is slavery—Calvin Coolidge.

Though full of ups and downs life is best played on the level.

Little Joe

Astronomy Prof: Name some heavenly bodies.

Student: Sure, Gilda Gray, Clara Bow, Mae Murray and Ester Rolston.—The Small Pica

The true red-blooded American is a combination of Scandinavian stamina, Scotch thrift, Irish wit, English statesmanship, German jollity, French dignity and Spanish chivalry.

Our H. S. Philosopher.

For lack of wood the fire goeth out; and where there is no whisperer, contention ceaseth

Proverbs 26: 20

[Continued on front page]