

Last Saturday while Eilene and Raymond Councilman, children of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Councilman, were riding a horse the animal became frightened at an automobile and shied, causing the little girl to fall off, her body striking the ground in such a manner that her arm was broken near the shoulder. The injury is a very painful one, but she is getting along as well as can be hoped for.