

The fourteen months old child of R. H. Denison and wife, who live on the old Bemis farm, was run over by a horse while playing in the yard Wednesday of last week, and severely injured about the face and chest.