

Mrs. Joseph Ebentier has a clipping from a Green Bay Wisconsin paper which tells of the honors conferred on Albert Ebentier as director of the safety campaign among the 1200 employees of the Wisconsin Public Service Corporation during 1929. The men who worked under him led in prevention of accidents over all other divisions of the company in the United States. For this service he and his men were awarded a silver trophy.