

---

Shortly after noon Saturday, the barn on the Kinmonth farm where Severt Fadness lives, caught fire and was burned. Fortunately no stock was burned, three horses that were inside having been taken out before the fire got too great a start. There was only a few tons of hay and some feed in the barn, but the greatest loss among the contents was the clothing, bedding etc. belonging to the harvest crew. Cigarettes is assigned as the probable cause of the fire.

---