

Mrs. C. W. Fallen took her son Clifford to Fargo Sunday night for an appendicitis operation but as the anaesthetic was to be given it was discovered he had scarlet fever in its early stage. The child was placed under quarantine and the operation will be performed at a later date.