

W. J. Frederick sold his barber shop, confectionery, news stand, gas and oil business Monday to Melvin Kleven of Jamestown, the latter taking possession Thursday. A Nash car figured in the deal, and Mr. Frederick and his family will use it to make the trip to Seattle, which is to be their future home. His two sons are living in Seattle, both being managers of chain stores in that city.