

Elmer Frydenberg's garage was paid a visit by burglars Wednesday night, two tires and a tube being removed. The money drawer was also opened but it contained only a few pennies which were taken. Entrance was gained through a back window.