

Glenfield Items

A. W. Johnson arrived home Thursday from a business trip to Montana.

Dinner guests at the Herman Saint home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Verchoots and son, Mr. and Mrs. Baker, Mrs. H. Hamilton of Courtenay and Emil Saint and family of McHenry.

P. M. Hanson arrived home Monday from a business trip to Montana.

Lottie Posey left Tuesday for Fargo to attend the Postmasters convention.

A number from here enjoyed fishing at Juanita Lake Sunday.

W. A. Hoggarth and family spent Sunday at the Herman Johnson home.

Nora Hendrickson and Byrd Posey are taking care of the Post office and confectionery this week.

Grant Turner arrived here Tuesday to spend an indefinite time with his brothers here.

James Jensen and family spent Sunday evening at the G. M. Paulson home.

W. A. Hoggarth and family and Nora Hendrickson were Cooperstown callers Friday.

Lewis Larson and Lottie Posey spent Sunday visiting the latter's parents near Courtenay.

A number from here attended the ball game at Sutton Sunday.

Elizabeth Thompson left Sunday for Valley City where she will attend the State Teachers College.

O. E. Rhodes and Pete Kingsley of Sutton were callers here Monday evening.

P. M. and Victor Hanson were Carrington visitors Tuesday.

Ernest Halverson is assisting with the work at the hardware.