

A. J. Gunderson, our popular druggist, closed a deal last Saturday for the purchase of the drug store at Hope, taking possession Monday of this week. His predecessor was A. Moore, a former teacher southeast of town, and also in the Sutton school. Mr. Moore has poor health, we are told and has to discontinue his calling for awhile. Mr Gunderson still owns the store here and is leaving Marvin Greenland in charge of it. It is with real regret that we chronicle this item, but we certainly wish Mr. Gunderson great success in his new field of labor.
