
Hafners Lose

Furniture By Fire

Charles Hafner's had the hard luck to lose their furniture by fire at Edgeley Wednesday night. They had stored it in a garage building and were doing light housekeeping until they could secure a place to live in. However, about that time Mr. Hafner had disposed of the meat market to its former owner and the family is located at Ellendale again.
