

A four horse team of M. I. Kirkeby's become frightened Tuesday evening and ran away with a disc, resulting in one horse being so badly crippled it had to be killed. The animal was one of a pair of matched purebred registered mares, which were greatly prized by Mr. Kirkeby.