

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirkeby brought their son Myron to Cooperstown on Monday of this week for medical attention.
The boy had fallen from the hay mow of the barn and had broken both bones in his right forearm.—Sentinel-Courier.