

Anton Klevin was very sick the past week from poisoning in his system caused by shingle nails held in his mouth while engaged in some carpenter work. Parts of his body were badly swollen, but he is now getting over it.