

A Griggs county unit of the Farmers Union was organized at Cooperstown Tuesday of last week. George Kolpin was elected president and I. A. Kampen secretary and treasurer, with other officers chosen from various parts of the county. The organization will meet four times a year, March, June, September and December.