
Mabel Church

Burned

Mabel Lutheran church, south of Sutton was burned down Monday evening. It was caused by a fire that had been started to burn weeds and grass along the road, but which got beyond control when the wind changed to a different direction. There was no chance to save anything. The church was built in 1889.

The loss of the church is a hard blow to the congregation.
