

The obstacles in the way of starting work on the Lutheran church have been removed and excavating for the basement will start soon. George Allen has this job and we understand a Cooperstown contractor will do the construction work.