

The Mabel Lutheran congregation met again in the hall Thursday to settle the problem of a location on which to build their new church. The sentiment in favor of town had grown considerably since the last meeting so it was almost unanimously agreed to build in Sutton. In all likelihood the new church will be completed by fall.