

A bunch of Fargo boosters marched into town Thursday to the merry strains of music from a radio loud speaker mounted on one of the cars, and broadcasting a morning program from W. D. A. Y. The crowd remained here about 15 minutes. A. J. McInnes, who is a resident of Fargo was one of the visitors. He managed to get around and shake hands with those among the old timers whom he knew