

Anton Nelson returned to St. Paul last Thursday after a short vacation at home. He has a good job as checker of piece-work at the Armour packing plant and expects to be promoted to a better position in the plant before many months.