
Arm Broken

While pole vaulting at the school house Tuesday evening, Albert Olsen had the misfortune to fall and break his left arm at the wrist. His father took him to Fargo on No. 2 Tuesday night to have the bones set. Albert is singularly unfortunate in this respect. Somewhat less than a year ago he broke his right arm while playing ball at Litchville.
