

F. A. Olson was in Valley City Wednesday. The Swedish crown prince and his wife passed through the city that evening, so he made it convenient to be at the depot to get a look at their royal highnesses when the train stopped.