

Our movie man, John Peters, has decided to give shows each week hereafter, and the first one will be Saturday night this week. The picture to be shown is "Too Much Money" by Lewis Stone and Anna Q. Nelson. Also he will continue the two reel serial, Fighting Hearts, which he started last fall. He has a number of other pictures booked all good ones, and they should merit your patronage. Show starts promptly at eight o'clock.