

Mrs. Henry Pitcher and children of Courtenay were over Sunday visitors at Geo. Allen's. Mrs. Pitcher's daughter Janie had the misfortune Saturday to severely burn her right eye with a curling iron. The eyeball was seared and it was feared at first the sight might be destroyed. However, after receiving several treatments at Cooperstown she is regaining use of the member.