

Bjarne Hoff, Eloyd Pratt and Eldred Marrs were home from the state university for their Easter vacation, returning to their studies Monday, Floyd will direct his energies the remainder of this year and the first semester of 1930-31 to preparation for entry at West Point military academy to which he was appointed by U. S. senator Gerald P. Nye. It is his intention to complete his engineering course at West Point.

---