

Floyd Pratt and Eldred Marrs went to Grand Forks Monday to take up their student work at the state university. Both are registered for a four year course in chemical engineering, this being Floyd's second year and Eldred's first.