

While Ed Rhodes was attempting to start his tractor Wednesday the engine backfired and the crank struck him full force in the face, throwing him about ten feet. Ed is carrying several bruises about the eyes as a result of the mishap.