

---

Fire of unknown origin destroyed a number of sheds belonging to Orion Rhodes Friday afternoon. He and his family had left about an hour before the fire was discovered for Valley City where he had a job hauling gravel. The buildings were of no great value, but Orion had a large assortment of auto and truck repairs stored in them and this was a heavy loss to him.