

Orion Rhodes is building a pleasure launch which he intends to use on Lake Willow this summer. It will have a seating capacity of 40 and will be propelled by twin paddle wheels at the rear, the motive power to be two Ford engines, assembled tandem fashion. The boat may be steered by the paddle wheels alone except when making short turns. The craft may also be reversed. The weight of the boat when completed will be nearly five tons.