

Again we are without a meat market, True Richardson having closed the place this week.