

S. Rise returned this week from, St. Paul, having received word from Senator Thomas Hall that he would be recommended for appointment as rural carrier. No official notice from the post office department has been received however,