

There is a slight correction to be made to the item last week concerning Sverre Rise's car. The garage at Cooperstown sent a man after the car instead of him taking it over and as there was no alcohol in the radiator it is believed they forgot to drain hence the cause of damage to it.