

Sverre Rise has experienced some tough luck with his car, with considerable expense connected therewith. He took it to Cooperstown one day recently for some repairs when the radiator developed a bad leak and was pronounced past repair. Coupled with the expense of a new radiator was that of transportation from Cooperstown to Sutton, both for himself and car.