

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sorvik of Jamestown have been greatly concerned in recent weeks because of a threatened attack on their baby of infantile paralysis. However, late reports indicate that the malady has been checked. Mrs. Sorvik's sister, Miss Lillian Byington, is there from the Williston hospital to give the child professional care.