

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton narrowly escaped suffocation by gas from their hard coal heater early Wednesday morning. This was their second experience with gas within a few days.