

Mrs. R. B. Thu walked home from Revere Tuesday evening, facing a bitter wind, a distance of seven miles, and as a result froze her feet and face very badly. She is confined to her room, but is improving rapidly and will be able to resume her school work after the holidays. Miss Beatrice Starr is substituting for her the balance of this week.